WEEQUAHIC HIGH SCHOOL

NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

CLASS OF

JANUARY 1943

ON THE MARCH

SOON we are going out to find a place in the world, a confused world, a doubting world, a world filled with people who have not yet learned how to live. We, the graduates of today, know that the world into which we are about to step is not the proverbial oyster. Our eyes have not been closed to events about us, and we are not unprepared. As we have gone along the assembly line in our Alma Mater, each teacher has added his bit to our development. We have been prepared to take our place as good citizens, to become good soldiers on either the home front or the battle line.

As we read through these pages, memories of the past surge over us, and we stride forward and keep our faces resolutely turned toward the future, whatever it may bring. Let it be our mission to bring honor to that country and that school which have given us our start.

TO OUR LEADER

We, the graduating class of 1943,
Wish to pay our respects to you most heartily.
Our faltering steps you've guided the right way,
Your helpful suggestions we never can repay.
Miss Beard, you who walk with silent grace,
In our hearts will have a cherished place.
Our seven companies join in offering you salute,
To your thoughtfulness and kindness, a real tribute.

WALTER WHITE

AIDES TO THE PRINCIPAL

ROBERT M. COLEMAN

TO THE CLASS OF JANUARY, 1943

• You are the third of our classes to graduate in times of war, and several of your number have already joined the Armed Forces of the United States. The demands of the hour are inexorable on all of us, but I have the proud confidence that every young man and woman in this fine class will meet these demands with patriotic devotion and courage. I bid you all God-speed and happy landing.

CLASS SONG

(To the tune of "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition")

Praise the Lord, we're finally graduatin'!
Thank the Lord, it wasn't long awaitin'!
Please, dear Lord, let's have a celebratin'
Cause we're all through now!
Thank the profs for all that they have taught us;
Good or bad, our future lies before us.
Weequahic High, with proud and happy hearts,
We depart from you.
Yes, the 4A's all said it,
The profs deserve the credit,
For the wonderful, wonderful guidance they showed.
Let's praise the school,
And you 4B's behind us,
Carry on and let our spirit bind us.
Praise the Lord, now pass out our diplomas,
And we'll all be free!

THE MARCH OF TIME

We were once the Freshies who promised not to shirk;
We were once the upstarts who glared at so much work;
We were once the duped ones who bought all sorts of passes;
We were once the "greenies" who shied at noise 'twixt classes;
We were once the studious who were the homework tillers;
We were once the outlaws who cut for all Glenn Millers;
We were once the marvels who got those "A's" galore;
We were once the "el stupido" who never knew much more;
We were once the idols who beamed in prof's affections;
We were once the wise guys who bragged of good connections;
We were once the salesmen who pressured O.B.A. books;
We were once the gamblers who cast our lot on good looks;

* * * * *

But now we are the Seniors whose high school days are o'er.

Oh! to be a Freshman and begin the climb once more.

June Robins.

ON THE NIGHT OF GRADUATION

The music strikes the bell of coming doom;
The Senior Class walks slowly down the aisle;
And anxious parents soon begin to sigh,
“Why don’t those Seniors ever crack a smile?”

Now steps the Class upon the lighted stage,
And all the parents wait with fondest hopes.
Just then some happy students start to cry,
“Gosh, what a lot of funny-looking mopes!”

Beneath each pale and deathly looking face,
There heaves a heart in many a hammering blow;
Each to a squeaky chair begins to pace,
And marches on with step so deadly slow.

The songs, the message of the fine address
Are lost on their dull, unreceiving ears;
Each lofty point the orator may stress
But tends to magnify their fears.

At last the fateful moment comes,
The precious ribboned parchments out are brought;
Each happy student o’er the platform runs
To get the document so long, long sought.

Now runs the Class up past the rows,
And all the air rings with the fervent cry,
“Another Senior Class at this time goes
At last, O lucky grads, from Weequahic High!”

IN SERVICE

... — We on The Legend staff are proud of our contribution to the war effort. We have given our own Mr. Harold La Penna, our former Legend adviser, who is now serving in the armed forces. We on the staff join the faculty and student body in wishing him good luck and a happy return to our school when this war is over.

THE CHALLENGE

Do you remember December 7 in 1941,
When we were attacked by ruthless Japs,
From the Land of the Rising Sun?
Do you remember the time we said that we couldn't get involved,
And before the fatal blow was struck
We thought the problem solved?
Do you remember that very day when your mother and father cried,
"Another war! Oh, God forbid, that's how my brother died!"
And when it seemed like a fairy tale and we couldn't believe it true,
We walked around with puzzled mind
And asked what we could do?
But as we look back just one year and we know the meaning of war,
We realize now that there's work to be done
And a Victory to score!

GUARD HOUSE

ALONE sat an individual, silent in a large room. All was silent, save for the ticking of a clock, tick tock, tick tock. The occupant's countenance was drawn and wan, his jaw muscles were strained, he was seated rigidly on the end of his seat. Then suddenly tap . . . tap . . . tap . . . He jerked up with a start, trying to determine what ghoulish creature might be invading these forbidding portals. The door creaked open on rusty hinges and the inevitable arrived. A solitary person entered the room, walked to the center of the floor, and fixed a stern glare on the culprit. Then with a sardonic grin upon his face, he spoke in a harsh, rasping, monotonous voice saying, "There will be no detention today."

Elliot Friedman.

THE SPIRIT OF '43

I AM the Spirit, the Spirit of the Class of '43, and I hope to establish our history in this brief essay.

It all started back in 1939, when two-hundred and fifty fresh faces, in more ways than one, entered Weequahic. For the most part, they understood; but for the other part, those pure and simple Charles Butterworths, it was a different story. They were the credulous individuals who bought elevator tickets, hall passes, and even bathing lockers; now, four years later, they are selling them. Time may have led some minds toward further maturity, but the rest of the gay, frolicking lot of us are still playing practical jokes. High school would not be high school without these jokes and the personalities who perpetrate them.

As Time passed—and I bid one no-trump—our class as a whole became friendly and we began talking to each other. We became more conscientious, and even asked some of our classmates to dances, dances where neither the boy nor the girl was able to dance. Still we loved it just the same.

As the days turned to months and the months to years, we became less afraid; we began to hold up our heads in the hall. We soon had elections, with flamboyant campaigns, where the loser would have to be held back from leaping out the third floor window into a damp rag. Still we loved it just the same.

School became such a pleasure for most of us that we would never miss it—Never?—Well hardly ever!—Nor would we ever get marks below the highest calibre. We attended football games, not only in groups of boys and girls, but later we gathered enough nerve—attribute this to spinach—to ask a lovely damsel, for we have some, to go with us. Still we loved it just the same.

We had our music reviews, which were always a tremendous success. We also had our plays with actual casts; some of the actors would have done better with their feet in casts. Still we loved it just the same.

Now we are grown up; we are the commanders of the halls; the entire school, the Sophs and the Juniors, look up to us—and then shriek! We, the Seniors, the high and mighty ones, don't bother with girls of the upper class, but instead take out Sophs. Imagine that! after four years of school, we're back to those Sophs. Still we love it just the same.

Now in 4A, remarks like these shorten the day:

In Chemistry, on a Wednesday, test day, when all the blackboards are being erased and paper passed out, a bright young student calls out, "Prepare for a spelling bee!"

In History, when the teacher becomes so enraged at us that he calls us a bunch of animals, he gets this answer, sotto voce, "Yes, and I'm the wolf!"

In Foreign Language class, when the teacher strikes a word, sounding like "noddin'," the comment comes, "Then out!"

In English, when the teacher asks for an experience, she gets something like this, "Yes, I have been to a football game, but they put me up so high it was only a rumor. The salesman kept yelling, 'ice cream, candy, and oxygen!'"

Still we love it just the same.

Upon graduation we will look back to Weequahic, and think of the enjoyment we have had. We will want to come back, but, even more, we will want to protect those Sophs and Freshmen we teased. Yes, more than ever, now the spirit of this essay becomes the Spirit of '43. May it become the Spirit of America!

Charles Klein, Historian.

SPORTS PAGE

FOR faithful work performed on the many battlefronts of Weequahic, for heroic deeds and accomplishments, and for brilliant feats on the fields of battle, we present the Medal of Valor to the following:

With the graduation of WILLIAM HOREY Weequahic will undoubtedly lose one of the greatest football players in the history of the school. Bill earned varsity letters in both his junior and senior years. Changed from end to guard in his senior year, Bill played a game which was one of the highlights of our team.

"LITTLE" JOE TENENBAUM was a member of Weequahic's cross-country team in his sophomore year. Overcoming his lack of size, he worked hard and won a varsity letter. Joe also ran on the track team and did well for himself and the school.

Big, good-natured HOWARD BOBKER played football as a tackle. Although handicapped by injuries early in the season, he proved his worth to the team. "Howie" was a hard-hitting, low-charging tackle and won his letter in his senior year.

Little is heard about quiet, hard-working

JAMES CROSSON. Jimmy ran on the cross-country team in his junior year, but did not fare so well. In his senior year Jimmy showed a decided improvement and earned his letter.

ARTHUR COHEN, capable and hard-working manager, handled the track team for two years and earned his letter. Artie also played football in his senior year.

MARTIN LERIT, affectionately called "Tonto," earned his letter playing baseball. Marty held down the centerfield position and was a sharp batter.

ZACHARY MINION earned his letter as a relief pitcher, saving many games for the team. His prowess at the plate drove in many a run. Pitcher, batter, and sportsman was "Zockie" Minion.

FRANK "RED" FELDMAN started playing football in his freshman year. He is known primarily for his great passing ability. Frank played basketball also, and earned his letter in both sports.

Weequahic's high-scoring end, GEORGE MCCLUSKEY, earned his varsity letter in his senior year. George particularly shone on the offensive and excelled in pass catching.

MECHANIZED TROOPS STREAMLINED FOR ACTIVE DUTY

Class Attention!"*

WITH these words all squads look forward with intent interest to their commanding officer who has attained her high position through hard effort. The three orange stripes and stars raised on a brown background, which she wears on her left side, signify her gymnastic merit. The point system at school gives each buck private an opportunity to work her way up to a higher rank. Fifty points are given for the following: perfect attendance, each extra-curricular activity, and captaincy of a squad.

1942 has seen more emphasis placed on physical training than ever before and we are proud to salute these girls for achieving awards.

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

WE, the class of January 1943, of Weequahic High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby publish this, our last will and testament, in order to distribute our various interests at Weequahic to those brave spirits who are following in our footsteps and to those who have aided us on our way.

TO GENERAL CHIEF OF STAFF, MAX J. HERZBERG, we leave our sincere appreciation and a deep satisfaction that this class of 1943 has finally passed on to other fields. We leave him a feeling of pride when he reads of our great successes as we go out to conquer the world.

TO LT. GENERAL WHITE, we bestow a medal for bravery for his heroism in escaping unharmed after four years of fighting against the battling forces of the senior classes.

TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL of our last outpost, MR. COLEMAN, we leave healthier and heartier raw recruits.

TO MAJOR GENERAL BEARD, our helpful, patient, kind, and sorely-tried class adviser, we leave pleasant memories of our association, and we bequeath our invention—a schedule-making, course-planning machine.

TO THE MAJORS, our FACULTY, whose untiring efforts have successfully guided us to our goals, we leave a full year's supply of absence excuses.

TO THE OFFICIAL BRODSKY ADMINISTRATION, our ORANGE AND BROWN ASSOCIATION, we grant endless numbers of contracts with "name" bands and top ranking comedians, hoping, in this way to further the success of its many affairs.

TO THE POST BULLETIN, the CALUMET, we offer a wide range of Heywood Brouns.

TO THE M. P.'s, the SAGAMORES that roam the halls, we leave a fresh crop of sophomores, a fertile field for summonses, rebukes, fines, and menial tasks. (We know we had our share.)

TO THE RECEPTION CENTER, the ANNEX, we leave a station wagon with four retreads to enable the recruits to commute to the main building for their eighth period class.

TO THE CORPORALS, our SOPHOMORES, we give a map of the school with all the elevators, swimming pool, and eating facilities clearly marked.

TO THE SERGEANTS, our JUNIORS, we leave the tiresome task of collecting class dues and getting ads for the yearbook.

TO THE MESS-HALL, the CAFETERIA, we leave a corps of K. P.'s, whose sole duty it is to replace empty milk bottles.

TO THE INFIRMARY, the HEALTH OFFICE, we leave a box of thermometers that register fever.

TO THE GUARD HOUSE, the STUDY HALL, we cheerfully bequeath the refugees who have been forcefully rejected from the Office of Information and just accept the alternative of standing patiently at the urgent request of some major.

TO THE OFFICE OF INFORMATION, the LIBRARY, we leave small but determined groups of quiet students who will not, under any circumstances, bother the staff with their problems.

TO THE ENGINEERING CORPS, the JANITORIAL STAFF, we offer our everlasting thanks for warm rooms on Monday mornings, and hope that this humane work will continue for years to come.

TO THE TESTING GROUNDS or EXPERIMENTAL STATION, the CHEM LAB, which has been the origin of many a rare perfume, we offer many more solutions of hydrogen sulfide as well as copper pennies and nitric acid.

TO THE POST PERSONNEL, the OFFICE, we leave a clock that is always five minutes fast for the benefit of the troops that are always arriving late.

TO THE FORT WEEQUAHIC BAND AND GLEE CLUB, we leave a carload of electric heaters so that they may warm their feet after a Thursday of parading to victory.

TO THE DRILLING GROUNDS, the GYM, we leave longer dressing periods.

TO SIGNAL CORPS HEADQUARTERS, ROOM 104, where all pictures are shown, we leave an automatically controlled robot to work the light switches.

TO THE COMMANDOS, our FOOTBALL TEAM, we leave report cards containing A's and B's which may be used when needed.

TO MISS GERBER, MISS LEVITT, and MRS. SCHECHTER, our helpful and sympathetic yearbook advisers, we leave sleeping capsules for all their sleepless nights spent in agitation over the yearbook.

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN IN SERVICE and THOSE ENTERING THE SERVICE, we leave our best wishes and hope that their ceaseless endeavors to make us victorious will soon be rewarded.

In witness whereof we hereby set our seal on the 20th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-three.

THE HAND OF TIME

In my path of life I see
A monument, built just for me,
Inscribed upon its face is seen
A date, enclosed by vines of green.

Slowly now the hand of Fate
Fills in a space below that date;
In script he writes upon that stone,
"Twelve years have passed;
Future unknown."

Ruth Possert.

CLASS SONG

(To the tune of "White Christmas")

It's time for us to say good-bye;
We're leaving you, dear Weequahic High.
For the things you've taught us
And fun you've brought us,
You'll never in our mem'ry die.

We soon will walk the path of life;
You've made us strong to bear the strife,
Though it's dark and uncertain, right now,
You will always be proud of us, we vow.

Beatrice Resnick

Harriet Hollander

P O O R P R I V A T E

What a nuisance, what a bore
Before he went to fight this war;
Left his clothes here and there
On the floor, under the chair.
Scolded him 'most every day
For his crazy, sloppy way,
Thought he'd never learn what's right
Up until he went to fight.

Now he's up at five each morn,
Puts on khaki that's well worn,
Makes his bed and clears the floor
In ten seconds flat, no more.
But since he's gone, I feel quite sad,
I'd like him home now, good or bad.

NIGHT BEFORE THE PROM

By ELLIOT FRIEDMAN (With Apologies)

'Twas the night before the prom, when all through the school
No one was studying, ignoring each rule;
The gym was fixed up with decorations galore,
Waiting for the kids that all this was for.
The fellows were dressed for three hours before,
But the girls kept them waiting all the while more,
And I in my tux, and she in her gown,
Had just started away for the ride into town,
When from back of my car there arose such a noise
I sprang from my car, but 'twas only the boys.
"Hello Bernie, Hiya Alvin, hail to you Lom,
I see that you kids are on your way to the prom.
We'll follow along and we'll get there O. K.
Oh have you seen Ira, by the way?"
We finally got there and started to jive,
When Ira tapped me and asked me for five.
When the hour of twelve began to tick,
We all upt and left with the girl of our pick,
And to top it all off, right in the hall,
We decided, school's not so bad after all.

FAREWELL

The oaken doors now close upon
Another noisy crew,
Who turn their heads from our barracks
For something else to do.
And as we walk on through that door,
Our hearts beat with a sigh;
For, all in all, we hate to say
That dismal word, "Good Bye!"
Oh! we must leave the eye-worn clock,
The Palton Theory, too,
The halls so filled with chatter,
The study hall taboo.
The clacking sound of locker keys,
The rush when day is through,
The silence that we follow—
When a test is due.
No, never shall we all forget
The days that we spent here!
And so we close our study books
And wipe away a tear.

Beaté Sondhelm.

TO A PATRIOT

Love this country, patriot;
Love it, it's your own;
Have faith in those who lead the way
And your pathway have shown.
You will have the peace you love,
So stand behind the gun;
Place your trust in God above
And the war will be won.
Love this country, patriot;
Hold your head up high;
Above this gracious land of ours,
Far out into the sky
There waves a spangled banner,
Whose colors call to you.
Fight for it, it is your own!
Its promises are true!

ACTION is today's WATCHWORD

We are rallying our military forces to carry the war to the enemy.

Printing and all its allied arts in a similar manner are being mustered to carry America's message of hope to all the world.

The printed word is as effective on the home front as bullets on the war front.

Our plant, registered for national defense, is equipped and staffed to serve all your printing needs with the spirit of the times—to produce ACTION, the need of today.

LET'S GO AMERICA!
